FAQs & guidance

Answering common landlord questions

We anticipate the questions landlords regularly ask so you can move forward with confidence. For anything bespoke, our specialists are on hand to provide clarity and next steps.

What certificates do I need before letting?

Gas safety, EICR electrical reports, Energy Performance Certificates and smoke/CO compliance. Aktonz arranges each requirement with accredited engineers.

How are deposits handled?

Deposits are registered with government-approved schemes. Full Management includes registration and dispute support for worry-free compliance.

When will I receive rent?

Rent Collection and Full Management clients receive transfers within two working days of tenant payment alongside monthly statements.

Do you inspect the property during tenancy?

Full Management includes inspections every six months with photographic reports and agreed action plans.

How long is the agreement?

Services run per tenancy with flexible notice periods. Fees apply only while tenants remain in situ and there are no renewal surprises.
